Declaration Steps

Select Your Declaration

You must make a selection for both the Annual Requirement and 3-Year Rolling Cycle Requirement, which includes the 4 hours of verifiable learning activities in professional ethics. Your options consist of Comply, Exempt, or Non-Comply.

Minimum CPD requirements for all non-exempt members

Annual Requirement (Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 2022)	20 Hours (at least 1/2 must be verifiable CPD)
3-Year Rolling Cycle Requirement*	120 Hours (at least 1/2 must be verifiable CPD) Effective for the 2021 reporting year, this must include 4 hours of verifiable learning activities in the area of professional ethics.

*3-Year Rolling Cycle is comprised of the current reporting year and the last two years in which you did not receive an exemption.

Instructions

If you comply with the annual and 3-year rolling cycle requirements, then select comply.

If you are not in compliance with the annual and 3-year rolling cycle requirements, then select non-comply. A box will pop up for you to provide an explanation on why you did not meet the requirements. Additionally, you must enter or upload your action plan detailing what learning activities you will complete in order to be in compliance by the end of the next CPD reporting period.

Note: The CPD Exemption criteria have changed for 2022. If you qualify for an exemption, please select exempt and review the exemption criteria displayed to determine whether you in fact qualify for an exemption.

Submit Your Declaration

Once you have made your selections, ensure you have read and check the box regarding maintaining your records and Rule 203 of the CPA Alberta Rules of Professional Conduct with Guidance. Select next to review your declaration. For more information on maintaining CPD evidence, click here.

I understand that CPA Alberta may subsequently request information to support my CPD declaration and I have maintained records of my CPD for at least 5 years; these records will be made available upon request.

I understand my obligation under Rule 203 of the CPA Alberta Rules of Professional Conduct with Guidance which states:

A member shall sustain professional competence by keeping informed of, and complying with, development in professional standards in all function in which the member provides professional services or is relied upon because of the member's calling.

Confirmation

Once you have submitted your declaration, you will receive a confirmation that your declaration has been received.

Reminders

- The CPD Tracker is not your declaration. It is a recommended tool to track your CPD learning activities and is not mandatory. If you have completed the CPD Tracker, you are still required to login and make a CPD Declaration.
- If you have submitted your declaration, you will no longer receive reminder emails from CPA Alberta. If you continue to receive reminder email notifications, we have not received your declaration and you must login before the deadline to make your CPD declaration.
- To review your past CPD declaration submissions, you may do so by selecting “My Account” on the right side navigation menu and select “My Profile”. Click on “Declarations” and you will be able to view your previous CPD Declaration Records.
